Introduction

The project is to develop a Plugin system for QUT in the form of a multilingual digital noticeboard. QUT's multilingual digital noticeboard is a portable, low cost, web-based application to share information, designed for remote Australian communities. In this manual you will find a guide to navigating this website and using all its features.

Navigation menu

The navigation menu lets you maneuver your way through our website. Clicking the link will direct you to pages such as "Home", "Chat Room", "Learning Materials", "Watch Videos", "Educational Games", "Request for Tutoring" and "Statistics". The logo on the far left of the navigation menu can be clicked to enter the home page.

Translate

Use the “Google Translate” button, located in the top right of the navigation menu to translate the whole website into whichever language you want. There is a translation drop-down menu bar in the upper right corner of all web pages .

Register page

In the menu bar, there's a “Login” button. Click it, and you'll see the “Register” button, Click the button and complete the registration form. Finally, click on the “Register” button” to finalize your registration.

Login page

In the menu bar, there's a “Login” button. Click it and click “Login” to proceed to the login page. From there you can login to your account by filling in the email and password you registered with. If you have forgotten your password, you can click “Forgot password?” button.

Profile

After your login, you can click your name in menu bar. Then click “Profile”, here you can see your personal detail.

Post on the noticeboard

To post on the noticeboard you need to be logged in. Once logged in you will see a big button with a ‘+’ sign on it in the bottom right corner of the page. Clicking this button will open a form to create a new post. Note: both topic and content needs to be filled out to be able to submit the noticeboard post.

How to chat

To access this page you need to be logged in. Once logged in and you're in the chat room you will have a chat appear. That chat is automatically opened on last chat you had. If you wish you talk with someone else you can click the buttons that appear above the chat window. Clicking these will open chat windows with the user that you pressed.

Learning Materials

You have to be logged in to be able to download any learning materials. Once you are, a list of items accessible for download will appear. Clicking on the item you want will prompt a download to start.

Watch and post Videos

In the menu bar, click on “Watch Videos” button. Here you can see videos posted by other users of the site.

After having logged in, you can click the “+” button in the bottom right corner to post your own videos. To complete sharing a video you need to fill in the title of your movie and the link to the video. Before the video is displayed on the website it needs to be approved by an administrator.

Educational Games

In the menu bar, click on “Educational Games” button. You can play educational games simply by clicking the game you wish to play, and the game will open.

Request for Tutoring

In the menu bar, click on “Request for Tutoring” button. This website will allow students to get help with courses at QUT from online tutors. You can fill out a form to get help.

Statistic

In the menu bar, click on “Statistic” button. You can see the data of registered users, such as their states and gender.
